Job title

Coca-Cola Amatil Graduate Programme

Job description

While in the Grad Programme you will be immersed in our Organisation; starting with a holistic view of the organisation and ending with you in a role that enables you to capitalise and expand on all that University “Book Learning”. This is an amazing opportunity to get in on the ground floor of one of the biggest in the business. You'll work in the field, get to know our supply chain and feed off some of the sharpest minds in FMCG. All while being nurtured and developed by our OD team. You come in as a grad and very quickly you have a career in the company that makes, sells and distributes the biggest brand in the World.

What do I need?

Energy, drive, resolve. To qualify for the Graduate Programme you will need to have completed your degree within the previous academic year (2013 for the 2014 programme etc). We are seeking high performing, high potential and hungry individuals who want to fast track their careers within a leading business. Graduates must have a relevant degree with a B+ average or better to be considered. Ideally we want to hear from Graduates who have already proven their performance with some work experience prior to and or during their university study.

Training costs

Relevant University fees.

Career path

It's a bit of a cliché to say that once you've completed you Grad Programme the world is your oyster but in this case it's true. We've had grads go on to roles as diverse as Demand Planner, Territory Sales Manager, Operational Excellence Manager, Manufacturing Manager, District Sales Manager. If you got the right attitude, the smarts and a desire to take accountability for your career then there is literally nowhere you can't go.

Salary range

Grads currently come in at a base salary of $50,000 p.a. and depending on where they go, they can be looking at a total remuneration of up to $70,000p.a.

How to increase the chances of successfully entering this industry

It's all about the attitude and energy. If you are keen to learn, grow and develop, you'll go a long way. In the meantime, study hard, work hard and play hard. Enjoy Coke and we'll see you when you've finished Uni. We start looking for grads in the second half of each year so keep your eyes peeled about September-October.

Good luck!
